No Deforestation Commitment

Question

Does the company have a commitment on no-deforestation and is it available publicly?

Rationale

No deforestation commitments are voluntary sustainability initiatives adopted by companies to signal the intention to end all deforestation in their supply chains. Commitments to end all deforestation that have targets set with immediate deadlines and clear sanction-based implementation mechanisms in biomes with a high risk of forest commodity conversion can be effective tools to achieve deforestation-free value chains. Engagement with external stakeholders and with the entire supply chain exposed to deforestation risks, as well as monitoring and disclosure of compliance, further support effective implementation of no-deforestation commitments.

Key Definitions

No gross deforestation: Also referred to as zero or zero-gross deforestation, it refers to voluntary commitments to stop or reduce all deforestation associated with commodities that they produce, trade, and/or sell.

No net deforestation: Also referred to as zero-net deforestation, these are promises of future reforestation to compensate current forest loss, while future implementation deadlines allow for preemptive clearing.

Scope of commitment: Effective commitments to end deforestation must cover all products & services, and be applicable to all suppliers and partners. Failure to indicate complete coverage and applicability to the value chain results in uncertainty.

Own Operations: Own employees, own business, subsidiaries, own products and services, business units, regions, sites, plants, facilities

Suppliers: Include brokers, consultants, contractors, distributors, franchisees or licensees, home workers, independent contractors, manufacturers, primary producers, sub-contractors, tier-1 and 2 and wholesalers.

Partners: Include agents, lobbyists and other intermediaries, joint venture and consortia partners, customers, clients.

Commitment and oversight: A statement that the commitment/policy is approved, overseen, reviewed, or adopted by the board of directors or executive management. A policy can also be signed by the respective director.
