Key Definitions

Assurance specialists: Include accountants, certification bodies, and specialist consultancies. The term does not include independent advisory boards, stakeholder panels, or high-level individuals.

The declaration of independence: An explicit statement of independence from the auditor confirming that there is no other commercial link to the company's operations or business that could result in a conflict of interest.

Recognized international or national standard: Refers to assurance standards and not reporting standards (such as GRI guidelines). Examples of these assurance standards are AA1000AS and ISAE 3000, but regional or local standards are also acceptable if they are clearly specified and are comparable to international standards.

Examples include:

- Standard DR03422 (Australia /New Zealand)
- Assurance Engagements of Sustainability Reports (Germany)
- Environmental Report Assurance Services Guidelines by the JICPA (Japan)
- FAR auditing standard RevR6 (Sweden)
- Standard 3810 Assurance Engagements related to Sustainability Reports (the Netherlands)
- AT-C Section 105 and 210 (United States/ Canada)

Scope of assurance: If the scope of assurance covers some (but not all) social indicators, these need to be clearly marked in the relevant sections of the report. If the assurance statement covers all data items in the report, this also needs to be explicitly stated.

Conclusion/Level of assurance: This refers to the conclusion of the assurance process which is according to the level of assurance i.e. to limited/moderate or reasonable assurance. The level of assurance indicates the extent and depth of the work the assurance provider undertakes in relation to sustainability disclosures. Most assurance providers offer two levels: 'reasonable' assurance (i.e. high but still involving some risk of inappropriate conclusion) or 'limited' assurance (i.e. moderate) (GRI, 2013).

Social indicators: refer to quantitative indicators / KPIs covering KPIs covering human capital, labor indicators, human rights issues, occupational health and safety and other indicators covered under the "Social Dimension". Supply chain indicators are acceptable if they clearly focus on social issues.
