Human Rights Assessment

Question

Does the company report whether it has conducted an assessment of potential human rights issues across its business activities in the last three years?

Rationale

The purpose of this question is to assess the extent your company is proactively identifying where risks are and managing them. The process should consider the country contexts in which the organisation operates, the potential and actual human rights impacts resulting from the organisation's activities, and the relationships connected to those activities. Key Definitions

Own Operations: Includes direct activities, own employees, own sites, own products/services

Contractors and Tier I Suppliers: Include brokers, consultants, contractors, distributors, franchisees or licensees, home workers, independent contractors, manufacturers, primary producers, sub-contractors and wholesalers.

Joint ventures(including stakes above 10%): all joint ventures not included in Own Operations as defined above.

Percentage of suppliers assessed in the last 3 years: This refers to the number of entitiesacross the different categories of business activities that have beenassessed in the last three years, divided by the total absolute number of entities within the different categories of business activities in the current year. If an entity has been assessed multiple times in the last three years, it should only be counted once.

Data Requirements

For information on their own operations, companies may choose the basis for reporting from the following options: % of FTEs, % of revenues, % of clients, % of investment portfolio, % of sites or % of products.

For information on contractors and Tier I suppliers, the basis for reporting should be the % of contractors and Tier I suppliers.

For information on joint ventures, the basis for reporting should be the % of joint ventures.
