Canada Bread Reports Results for Second Quarter 2009

Toronto, Ontario – July 29, 2009… Canada Bread Company, Limited (TSX: CBY) today reported its financial results for the second quarter ended June 30, 2009.

- Net earnings per share of $0.89 compared to $0.26 last year
- Adjusted Operating Earnings increased to $33.1 million from $12.4 million
- North American bakery margins improved due to a decline in commodity prices

Note: Adjusted Operating Earnings are defined as earnings from operations before restructuring and other related costs and other income. Adjusted Earnings per Share ("Adjusted EPS") are defined as basic earnings per share adjusted for the impact of restructuring and other related costs.

"We are very pleased with the earnings growth we achieved in the second quarter" said Richard Lan, President and CEO. "With margins improved after the commodity price hyperinflation of last year, we are now focused on accelerating our growth through new product innovation, targeting expansion in new high growth categories and pursuing improvements that will bring increased efficiency through the supply chain."

Financial Overview

Sales for the second quarter decreased by 0.3% to $435.9 million compared to $437.4 million last year due to a moderate change in mix from specialty to staple products and lower volumes in the U.S. and U.K.

Earnings from operations before restructuring and other related costs and other income ("Adjusted Operating Earnings") increased to $33.1 million in the quarter compared to $12.4 million last year, while net earnings increased to $22.5 million compared to $6.5 million last year. The financial results for the second quarter 2008 were significantly below historical levels due to an unprecedented spike in input costs including flour, dairy and energy which impacted profitability.

The following is a summary of Adjusted Earnings per Share:

	Second Quarter		Year-to-Date
Per share	2009	2008	2009	2008
EPS	$0.89	$0.26	$1.47	$0.74
Restructuring and other related costs	$0.00	$0.04	$0.02	$0.08
Adjusted EPS [(i)]	$0.89	$0.30	$1.49	$0.81

Business Segment Review

Following is a summary of Adjusted Operating Earnings by business segment:

($ millions)	Second Quarter			Year-to-Date
	2009	2008	Change	2009	2008	Change
Fresh Bakery	$25.4	$12.5	103.7%	$38.2	$25.1	51.9%
Frozen Bakery	7.8	(0.1)	n/a	16.3	6.8	139.8%
Adjusted Operating Earnings[(i)]	$33.1	$12.4	167.3%	$54.5	$31.9	70.6%

(i) Does not add due to rounding.

Fresh Bakery (Fresh bakery products, sweet goods, sandwiches, and specialty fresh pasta and sauces)

Fresh Bakery sales in the second quarter increased 0.9% to $290.3 million compared to $287.6 million in the same period last year, mainly driven by favourable sales mix.

Adjusted Operating Earnings increased to $25.4 million in the second quarter compared to $12.5 million last year. The fresh bakery and pasta operations recorded improved margins as a result of lower commodity prices; however, this benefit was partly mitigated by a weaker Canadian dollar, which increased the cost of U.S. dollar priced flour and other ingredients.

Frozen Bakery (North American and U.K. frozen bakery products; including frozen par-baked and specialty bakery products)

Frozen Bakery sales decreased by 2.8% to $145.7 million from $149.8 million in the same period last year, due to a moderate change in mix from specialty to staple products and lower volumes.

Adjusted Operating Earnings in the quarter increased to $7.8 million compared to a loss of $0.1 million last year. North American bakery operations continued to realize improved margins due to lower commodity prices, mostly wheat and fuel, and lower utility costs. Earnings from the U.K. bakery operations were largely consistent with last year. Sales of bagels were restored to levels achieved prior to the oven fire at the Rotherham plant in early 2008 and contributed to improved mix. However, margin improvement achieved in the quarter was offset by higher marketing and promotional expenses to support growth in the bagel market.

Other Income

In the quarter, other income was $0.8 million compared to $1.5 million last year, mostly comprised of insurance proceeds received to cover business interruption losses resulting from the oven fire in the U.K. in 2008.

Other Matters

On July 28, 2009, Canada Bread Company, Limited declared a dividend of $0.06 per share payable on October 1, 2009 to shareholders of record on September 8, 2009. Unless indicated otherwise, by the Company, in writing at or before the time the dividend is paid, each dividend paid by the Corporation in 2009 or a subsequent year is an eligible dividend for the purposes of the “Enhanced Dividend Tax Credit System”.

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains, and the Company’s oral and written public communications often contain, forward-looking statements that are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about the industries in which the Company operates and beliefs and assumptions made by the Management of the Company. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements with respect to objectives and goals, as well as statements with respect to beliefs, plans, objectives, expectations, anticipations, estimates and intentions. Words such as “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “attempt,” “may,” “will,” “plan,” “believe,” “seek,” “estimate,” and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve assumptions and risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict.

In particular, these forward-looking statements are based on expectations concerning performance of the Company's business in general, and are based on a number of factors and assumptions including, but not limited to: the condition of the Canadian, United States and United Kingdom economies; the rate of exchange of the Canadian dollar to the U.S. dollar; the availability and prices of raw materials, energy and supplies; product pricing; the availability of insurance; the competitive environment and related market conditions; improvement of operating efficiencies; continued access to capital; the cost of compliance with environmental and health standards; no adverse results from ongoing litigation; no unexpected actions of domestic and foreign governments and the general assumption that none of the risks identified in the Company's Management's Discussion and Analysis will materialize. All of these assumptions have been derived from information currently available to the Company including information obtained by the Company from third-party sources. These assumptions may prove to be incorrect in whole or in part. In addition, actual results may differ materially from those expressed, implied or forecasted in such forward-looking statements, which reflect the Company's expectations only as of the date hereof.

Factors that could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from the results expressed or implied by forward-looking statements are discussed more fully under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Management's Discussion and Analysis for the year ended December 31, 2008 and updated in each quarterly Management's Discussion and Analysis that are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. The Company does not intend to, and the Company disclaims any obligation to, update any forward-looking statements, whether written or oral, or whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise except as required by law.

Canada Bread Company Limited, which is 89.8% owned by Maple Leaf Foods Inc., is a leading manufacturer and distributor of fresh bakery products, frozen par-baked products and fresh pasta and sauces.
