NEWS RELEASE

Canada Bread Announces Definitive Agreement to Sell its Fresh Pasta Business to Ebro Foods S.A.

TORONTO, October 24, 2013 – Canada Bread Company, Ltd. ("Canada Bread") (CBY: TSX) today announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement to sell Olivieri Foods, its fresh pasta and sauce business, to Ebro Foods, S.A. of Madrid, Spain for proceeds of approximately $120 million. Subject to Competition Bureau review, the transaction is expected to close by the end of 2013.

"This sale represents an excellent opportunity to optimize the value of our fresh pasta business, while realizing its potential under a company dedicated to expanding in the global pasta industry," said Richard Lan, President and CEO. "With the leading Canadian brand in fresh pasta, a strong consumer and customer base and highly skilled employees, this acquisition provides Ebro Foods with an excellent growth platform."

Antonio Hernández Callejas, Chairman of Ebro Foods, has expressed his satisfaction with the purchase of Olivieri, "which will enable us to enter the fresh pasta and sauces segment in Canada through the leading brand, thus consolidating our leadership in all the categories in which we operate in that country. The incorporation of Olivieri into Ebro Foods will also produce numerous additional synergies with our European fresh pasta business headed by Lustucru, in commercial, industrial, marketing and advertising aspects."

Olivieri Foods had total sales of $105.5 million in 2012 and employs approximately 375 people. The business manufactures flat and filled fresh pasta products and sauces at its facilities in Hamilton, Ontario and Delta, British Columbia.
